

Idaho's Veteran Designation on Driver's License & ID Card

To receive the Veteran's designation, you must present an acceptable document to an Idaho driver's license office showing proof of honorable discharge from military service, a valid active-duty identification, or proof of having a veteran license plate.

- The information will be entered into Idaho's driver database.
- There will be no additional charge to add the veteran designation when obtaining a new or renewed Idaho driver's license or identification card.
- There will be $15 duplicate card fee to add the veteran designation at any other time.
- The designation is permanent. There will be no additional cost unless you choose to have the designation removed.
